

Thank you for your recent inquiry about employment with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Since we do not maintain application files, you must apply for a specific job announcement. We are pleased to advise you that our employment information is automated which allows you to access it at your convenience 24 hours a day. You may use a personal computer or a computer at your local public library to access this information through the Internet. All Federal job vacancy announcements are available through:

- Office of Personnel Management's USAJOBS Internet site at <http://www.usajobs.opm.gov>
- By telephone at (912) 757-3000 (TTY service is at (612) 744-2299)
- Bulletin Board, via a personal computer and modem at (912) 757-3100.
- An additional job information Internet site is: <http://safetynet.doleta.gov>
- Most job information is also available through State Employment Service Agencies.

OF 510, Applying for a Federal Job, is a brochure that lists all the required information for your application and gives further directions. This form can be obtained through the Internet (Telnet and File Transfer Protocol only) at fjob.opm.gov or ftp.fjob.opm.gov respectively (select of612 and then of510) or by visiting most Federal offices.

General information about the kinds of positions that the Service hires and the qualifications required for most of these occupations is located on the Internet at: http://personnel.fws.gov/careers_fws.htm

We appreciate your interest in employment with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service!

Thank you for your recent inquiry about employment with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Since we do not maintain application files, you must apply for a specific job announcement. We are pleased to advise you that our employment information is automated which allows you to access it at your convenience 24 hours a day. You may use a personal computer or a computer at your local public library to access this information through the Internet. All Federal job vacancy announcements are available through:

- Office of Personnel Management's USAJOBS Internet site at <http://www.usajobs.opm.gov>
- By telephone at (912) 757-3000 (TTY service is at (612) 744-2299)
- Bulletin Board, via a personal computer and modem at (912) 757-3100.
- An additional job information Internet site is: <http://safetynet.doleta.gov>
- Most job information is also available through State Employment Service Agencies.

OF 510, Applying for a Federal Job, is a brochure that lists all the required information for your application and gives further directions. This form can be obtained through the Internet (Telnet and File Transfer Protocol only) at fjob.opm.gov or ftp.fjob.opm.gov respectively (select of612 and then of510) or by visiting most Federal offices.

General information about the kinds of positions that the Service hires and the qualifications required for most of these occupation is located on the Internet at: http://personnel.fws.gov/careers_fws.htm

We appreciate your interest in employment with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service!